UNITED WAY OF MID-MAINE ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTORS

United Way of Mid-Maine President/CPO Tina Chapman announced today that six new Directors have recently joined the non-profit organization. The United Way of Mid-Maine's Board of Directors is comprised of community volunteers that represent a wide variety of businesses and organizations located throughout the agency's service area. Joining the current Board of Directors is Representative Henry Beck - State Legislator, Cory Courtois - HealthReach Community Health Centers, Charles "Tom" Ferris, Esq. - Law Offices of Ferris, Chandler & Crook, Melissa Higgins - Northeast Laboratories, Joseph Jabar - Kennebec Wealth Management, and Marc Pitman - Inland Foundation. Suzanne Pooler, 2009/2010 Board Chair stated "I am very pleased to welcome these six outstanding individuals to our United Way of Mid-Maine Board. I appreciate their investment of service and dedication to our community. Our current Board of Directors, the staff and I look forward to working with them during the coming months."

United Way of Mid-Maine serves northern Kennebec, Somerset, and western Waldo counties.
